Teresa Leopold
(Austria)

Teresa Leopold was born in St. Louis, Missouri, USA. After studying at Western Michigan University with Phyllis Rappeport and Steven Hesla and at the Eastman School of Music with Frank Glazer (Master of Music) she completed her studies as the recipient of a Fulbright-Hays grant with Erik Werba in Vienna, specializing in the areas of vocal and instrumental chamber music. Teresa was a prizewinner of several international competitions, among them ARD Munich and "Vittorio Gui" in Florence, and has performed with artists and in various chamber music ensembles (Haffner Trio, Ensemble Capriccio, Vienna Concertino) throughout Europe, America and Japan, often documented by CD and radio recordings. She has also worked as an orchestra pianist with the Vienna Radio Symphony Orchestra. Teresa has been teaching at the University of Music and the Performing Arts in Vienna since 1989, where she is an associate professor of piano chamber music.
