

ILSU GURESCI

She was born in 1992 in Bursa, Turkey. She started her first musical training at the age of 12 and became the student of Ozgur Elgun. In 2007, she passed to Hacettepe University Ankara State Conservatory and became Nuray Esen's student for 2 years, then Kerem Aykal's student for 3 years. In 2012-2013 academic year, she studied with Pietro Serafin at Conservatorio di musica "G. Tartini" Trieste as an Erasmus Student.

She entered to Edirne International Chamber Music Competition in 2011 and L. Caraiian Cello Competition in Trieste in 2013. In both competitions she received 'Mention Award'

In 2010, she attended to the masterclass in Badleonnfelden, Austria and studied with C. Richter. In 2013, she also attended Henry Varema's masterclass in Trieste.

She actually participated in many orchestras such as Greek-Turkish Youth Orchestra, Ankara Youth Symphony Orchestra, Hacettepe Academic Symphony Orchestra, Bilkent Youth Symphony Orchestra and gave many concerts, records in different countries like Turkey, France, Greece, Russia, Austria, Italy and Slovenia and she joined International Youth Orchestras Festival in France in 2012.

She continues her educations as a senior student at Hacettepe University Ankara State Conservatory with Kerem Aykal.