Ieuan tours the world regularly with his harp. He has performed in more than twenty-five countries, given concerto appearance with some of the world's leading orchestras, and has many recordings to his credit. His concerts have received standing ovations from the Concertgebouw to the Teatro Colon in Argentina, the Port Fairy, Barossa and Melbourne festivals in Australia to the Cultural Centre in Manila, City Hall in Hong Kong and many, many more. At 13, he was the youngest member of the National Youth Orchestra of Wales. He went on to join the National Youth Orchestra of Great Britain, and then gained a scholarship to study with Marisa Robles at the Royal College of Music. After four years at the RCM, winning all the major prizes including the Tagore Gold Medal and the Queen Mothers Rose Bowl for the most distinguished student of his year, he won the Royal Over-Seas League Music Competition in 1985 (only the second harpist to do so in 50 years) and came runner up at the Israel International Competition. In March 2016 Ieuan was made a fellow of the Royal College of Music.
